Technical Support & Troubleshooting

Our US-based support team delivers answers and advice via 24/7 online chat, Twitter, live phone support (1-800-354-9706) and through support.cengage.com, which includes helpful articles, and tutorials.

If you are having trouble loading MindTap, run the MindTap browser check (<https://ng.cengage.com/static/browsercheck/index.html>) to make sure your browser is compatible or refer to the MindTap System Requirements (<https://help.cengage.com/mindtap/MindTap-System-Requirements.pdf>). If MindTap isn't loading, be sure to visit Techcheck (<https://techcheck.cengage.com>) to see if there is an outage.

Participation Policy

Students must be in class each class period, ready to learn and participate. You are required to login to the course site each week to access the course materials. Test questions will come from lectures, PP slides, handouts, and videos.

Email Policy

Email -----@southalabama.edu

Email MUST indicate "BUS 150" in the Subject line or the email will not be opened. During the week, I will respond to email within 24 hours. Email sent on weekends will generally receive a response on Monday morning.

Email is the preferred contact method for personal situations. If you have a general question about the class, use the Course Questions Forum by clicking the Questions Button on the homepage in the USA Online/Canvas course site.

Course Questions

If you have a question about the course or its requirements, please post the question in the Course Questions Forum by clicking the Questions Button on the homepage. Answers to your questions can then be posted by other students and/or the instructor, and other students can benefit from the question. General questions such as the following will ONLY be answered through the question forum. If you send the question to me via email, I will simply ask you to post the question in forums.

-“where do I find _____”,

-“I’ve read the chapter and watched the podcasts but I do not understand _____; can you please explain _____”;

Course Description

A survey of the field of business, including profit-seeking firms, not-for-profit organizations, and new businesses created by entrepreneurs. Emphasis on the business environment, organization and management, current economic and international issues, and career opportunities. Societal and ethical issues are also examined. The course is required of all incoming freshmen and any entering transfer student with less than 15 hours.

Learning Objectives

1. To enhance understanding of the different functional areas of business such as Accounting, Finance, Management, Marketing, and Economics
2. To enhance understanding of the role ethics and social responsibility play in business and other organizations
3. To provide students with the ability to apply business concepts and principles in diverse organizational situations
4. To provide students with helpful information on majors and careers in business

Attendance Policy

Students are required to attend class and participate in class discussions. Test questions will come from lectures, textbook, and class activities. In the event of an illness or family emergency that necessitates missing multiple classes, please contact the Dean of Students who will notify your instructors. Students will receive bonus points added to their final average based on the following formula.

Days Absent	Bonus Points
0 - 2 days	3 points
3 days	2 points
4 days	1 point

Cell Phones

Cell phones are to be turned off and out of sight during class. If you have an emergency situation that warrants consideration, please see the instructor.

Assignments

There will be approximately 12 homework assignments relevant to important course topics during the semester. The 2 lowest scores will be dropped and the average of the remaining assignments will count for 20% of the grade. Assignments will be given on Friday and should be submitted in Sakai (under Assignments) by the following Friday before 9:00pm. All assignments should be submitted as a word or pdf file and must include your name and course section. No late assignments will be accepted.

Online Chapter Quizzes

There will be a total of 12 quizzes over the chapters covered during the semester. The 2 lowest quiz scores will be dropped and the average of the remaining quizzes will count for 10% of the grade. Each quiz will include 10 multiple-choice questions from the textbook and lecture and should be completed online through Sakai. Each quiz will open on Monday at 9:00am during the week the chapter is covered and close the following Monday at 9:00am. You will have 30 minutes from the time you login to complete the quiz. There will be no makeups or extensions for chapter quizzes.

In Class Pop Quizzes

There will be random pop quizzes given in class during the semester. The 2 lowest quiz scores will be dropped and the average of the remaining quizzes will count for 10% of the grade. Each quiz will include 2-3 questions from the most recent lecture and will be given during the first few minutes of class. There will be no makeups for in class pop quizzes.

Exams

There will be four multiple-choice tests and a comprehensive final exam. Tests must be taken at the scheduled time. If there is a problem, the instructor must be contacted prior to the test and only a documented excuse will be considered. If a student misses a test with an excused absence, the percentage for that test will be added to the final exam. Unexcused absence from a test will result in a zero for that test.

Learning Community

This course is part of a learning community, with EH 101. We intentionally combined these classes and the instructors collaborated to create an environment to enhance your academic experience through community building and to foster integrative learning. Integrative learning is displayed when we combine skills from two or more areas to solve a problem or address an issue. In these classes, you will have the opportunity to develop relationships with your classmates and instructors, intentionally develop connections between the courses, and demonstrate integrative learning. If you have problems in a community class, please see your instructor or JagPal immediately.

JagSuccess

Jag Success is a program intended to help students be successful in 100 and 200 level courses. If you are not doing well, you will receive an email instructing you to see your professor and academic advisor. Each student will also receive a midterm grade during the week of October 10th. The purpose of the midterm grade is to let you know your current grade in a course and to give you a chance to improve your performance before the end of the semester.

Final Grades

This course is structured so that students can do their best. It includes many grade opportunities, both tests and assignments, bonus points, and easy access to assistance from the instructor and JagPals. When determining course grades, every student will be given every possible consideration. However, no student will be given special consideration. For this reason, I DO NOT DISCUSS OR NEGOTIATE GRADES.

Grading Policy

A grade of F* or U*, rather than an F or U is assigned in cases where the student does not officially withdraw, but who ceases “Attendance” as defined by the University (see below). Any student who fails the class and has missed 12 or more days will receive a grade of F*.

Changes in Course Requirements

Not all classes progress at the same rate thus course requirements might have to be modified as circumstances dictate. You will be given sufficient notice if the course requirements need to be changed.

Additional Bonus Points

Each Fall the Melton Center for Entrepreneurship and Innovation hosts the Coastal Pitch Competition. This is a business pitch competition similar to Shark Tank. In this competition, you will be asked to create and deliver a 1–2-minute business pitch about a product or business of your creation. If you compete in this competition, you will be rewarded 1 bonus point on your final grade.
