

Tools to Help Manage Daily Life for College Students with Intellectual Disabilities

June 18, 2020

© 2020, PACER Center | 8161 Normandale Boulevard, Bloomington, MN 55437-1044 | PACER.org/Transition

1

Welcome

Part of the Think College
Webinar Series
Presented by
PACER Center
Minneapolis, MN
(952) 838-9000

Today's presenters are Assistive Technology Specialists
from the Simon Technology
Center at PACER:

Sarah Giffen-Hunter

sarah.gh@pacer.org

Paul Sanft

paul.sanft@pacer.org

2

www.PACER.org

PACER has programs for children and adults with all types of disabilities, as well as their parents, families, and the professionals that work with them.

Page 3

PACER's
National Parent Center on
Transition and Employment

3

The Simon Technology Center (STC)

We work to make the benefits of technology more accessible to children and adults with disabilities.

Services:

- Information and referral
- Lending library
- Free tech consultations
- Individualized trainings
- Archived workshop videos

Page 4

PACER's
National Parent Center on
Transition and Employment

4

PACER's National Parent Center on Transition and Employment (NPCTE)

Visit: <http://www.pacer.org/transition/>

Page 5

PACER's
National Parent Center on
Transition and Employment

5

What will you need to do on your own at college?

- Manage your time and stay organized
- Find where you need to go on campus
- Let your parents know you're doing OK
- Manage your social life on campus
- Keep track of your money

Page 6

PACER's
National Parent Center on
Transition and Employment

6

How will I manage my time and stay organized?

-Calendar, reminders, to do lists, and tasks

- Tools built into your smart phone
- Errands To-Do List
- CanPlan – Task Manager

How will I manage my time and stay organized?

- Passwords and screen time

- LastPass password manager
- Toggl time tracker

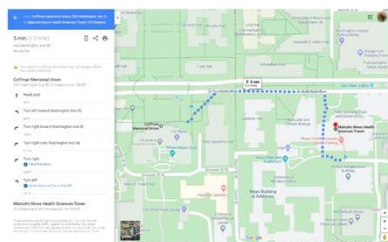

How will I find where I need to go on campus?

- Google Maps:
Walking, Biking, and Public Transit

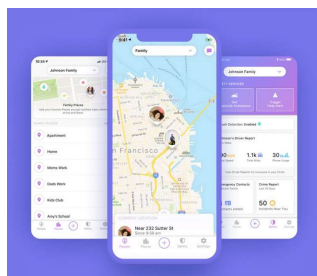

- Campus Maps
Example: campusmaps.umn.edu

How will my parents know that I'm doing OK?

- Life360: Find Family & Friends

How will I manage my social life on campus and keep track of my money?

Social skills apps:

- Social Skills Pro
- Social Learning Platform (SLP)

Money & budget apps:

- Life Budget
- Dollarbird

11

Questions & Wrap Up

Questions?

To contact the Simon Technology Center at PACER:

Call 952-838-9000

Email stc@pacer.org

Visit <http://www.pacer.org/stc/>

<https://thinkcollege.net/>

Thank you for joining us today!

12