Element #1: Clear and consistent goals

Establish an unmistakable commitment to increase competitive integrated employment outcomes

Goals should be:

- Measurable
- Flexible
- Compelling and easy to grasp
- Directly reflect the mission
- Specific to an established time frame
- Shared with all key stakeholders

Provider Strategies

- Strong actionable leadership
- Unleash the BHAG (Big Hairy Audacious Goal)
- Alignment of mission & vision with established goals
- Operationalize into written plan
- Allows for review & flexibility
- Engages multi-stakeholder groups & partnerships
- Seeks external advice

Element #2: Agency culture supports inclusion

- Guides & aligns executive, managers & DSPs actions to focused purpose/goals
- “Culture eats strategy for breakfast.”
- Translates values to action:
 - Employment and community
 - Positive thinking & messaging
 - Ongoing learning & skills
 - Creativity & innovation
 - Flexibility, resilience & persistence
 - Continuous quality improvement

Provider Strategies

- The culture can inhibit or drive positive change
- It's about aligning your environment, and everyone associated in it with your new way of thinking
- Leaders ensure that policy and practice match agency core values
- There is no failure....it is an opportunity to do something different

Element #3: An active, person-centered job placement process

- Find jobs for 1 person at a time
- Person-centered discovery
- Apply best practices in job development
- Is accessible to all
- Zero exclusion

Provider Strategies

Consider

Strategic prioritization

Use

Discovery and exploration to fine tune interests and build human and social capital

Invest in

Capacity building to learn and implement best practices in job
development

Element #4: Communicate expectations often and to all

Internally:

- Simple, visible practices and daily decisions
- Employment is a clear and authentic expectation

Externally:

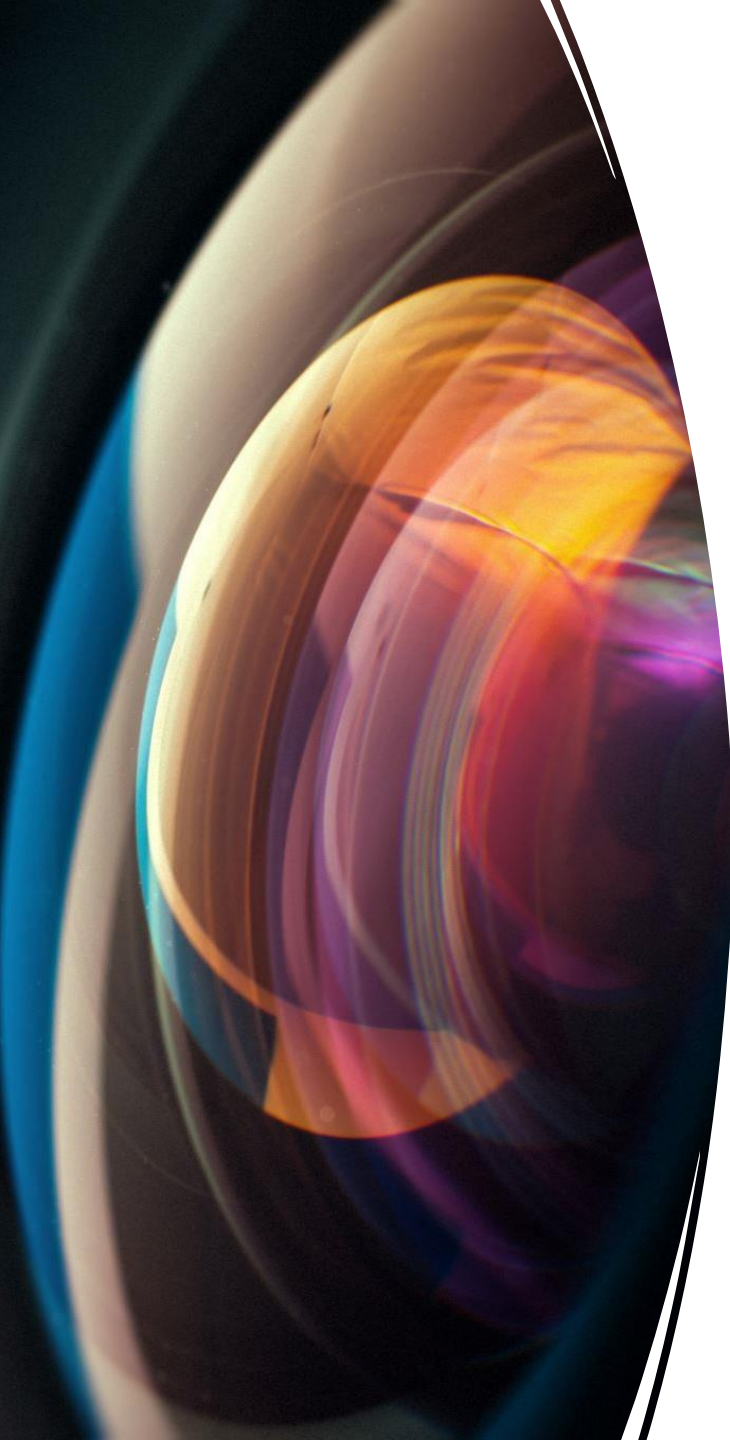

- How money is spent
- Goal-based data tracking
- Simple outreach (newsletters)
- Family meetings

Provider Strategies

- Try to answer the hard questions before they are asked
- Be as transparent as possible, even if you don't have all the answers
- Use champions to communicate with peers
- Different formats for different populations
- Share success stories
- Positivity is everything
- Rebranding: Rebalance communications/messaging that supports the organization you are becoming

Through the Lens of a Leader

“We never looked back....we moved forward”

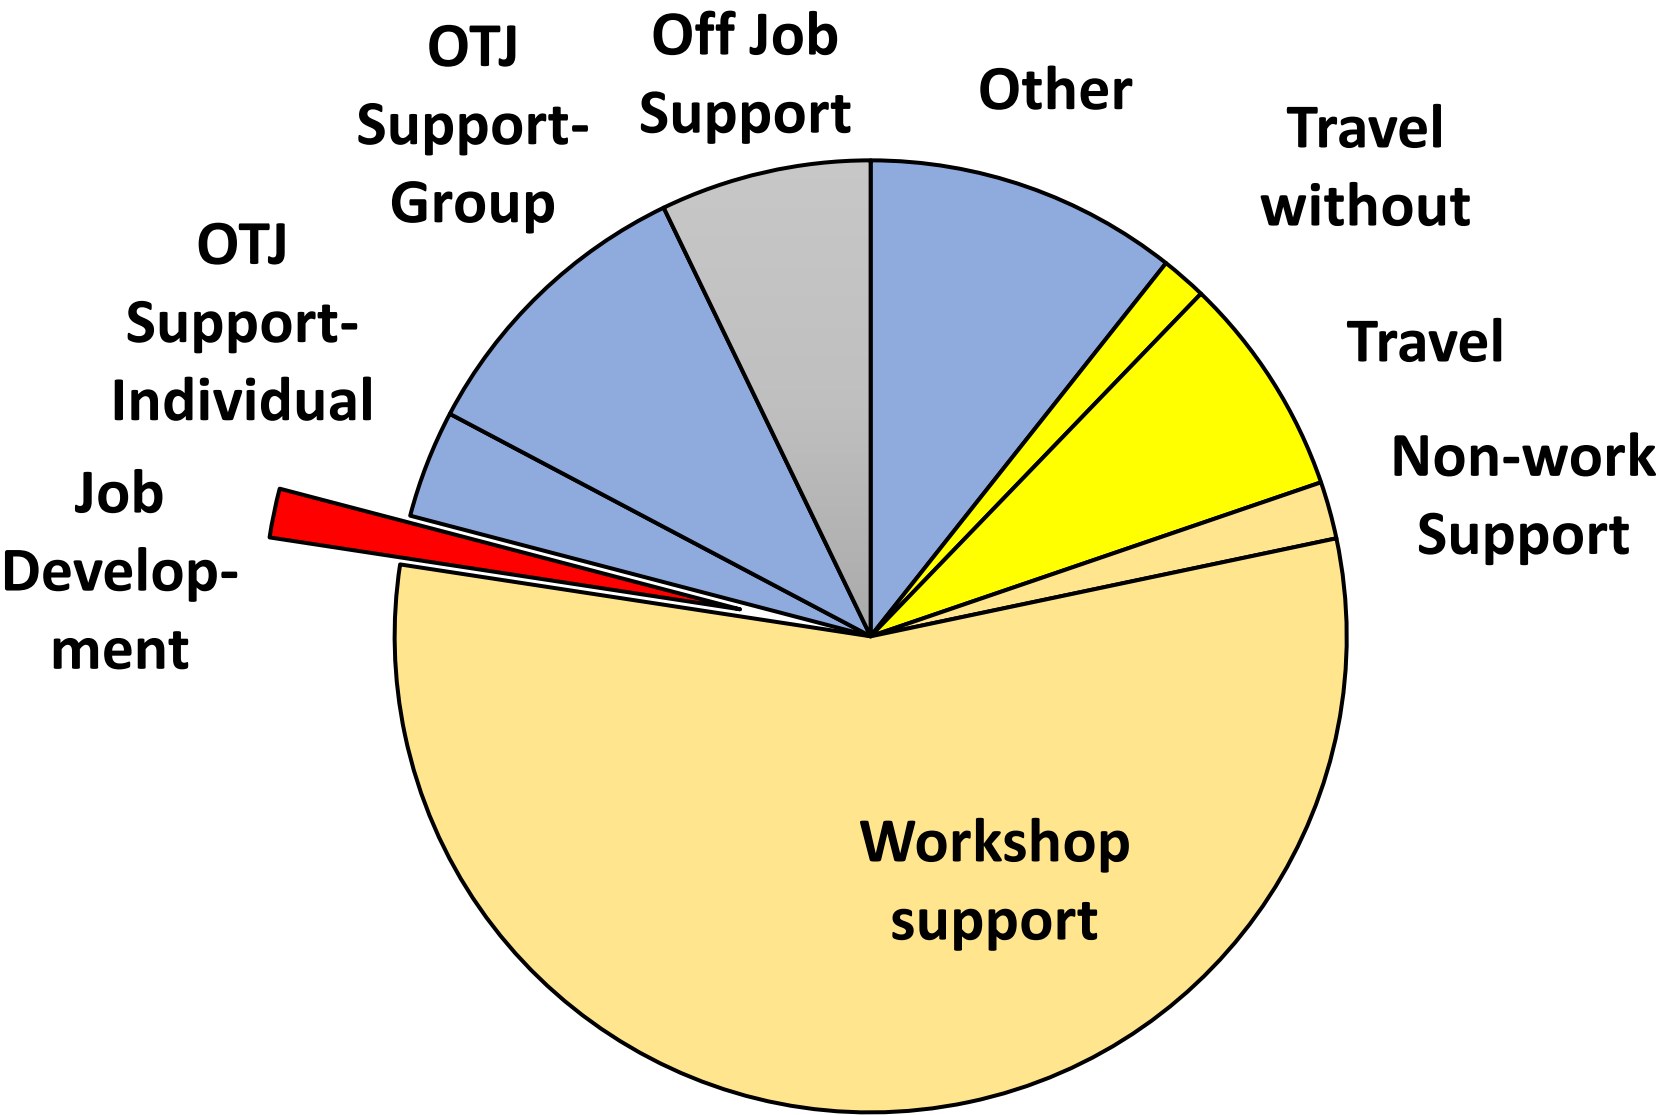

Element #5: Reallocate and restructure all resources

- Rethink funding
- Look at all resources
- Remember:
 - Investment reflects priorities, influences outcomes

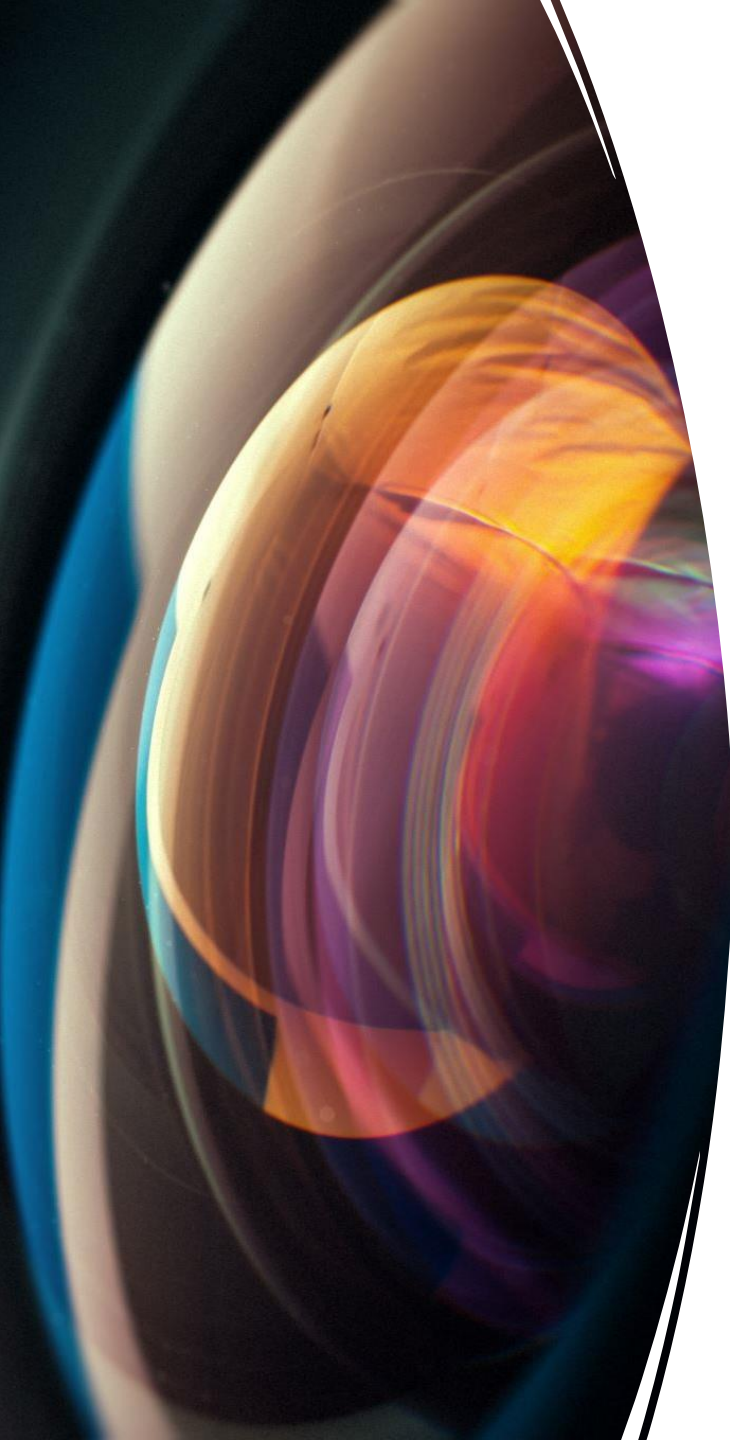

Resources

Provider Strategies

- Analyze current budget for alignment to new mission
- Realign current funds into staff resources
- Plan for sustainability beyond the transformation
- Consider avenues for transitional funds

Through the Lens of a Leader

“Today, our CFO participates in all of our programmatic activities, and that’s part of the reason it still works.”

Element #6:
Ongoing professional development
of staff

Training, continuing education, conferences & mentorship can lead to core competencies and best practices.

Support employees at all levels to meaningfully contribute their ideas and energy to the mission.

Provider Strategies

- Consider investment in training & start immediately
- Use professional development as an engagement opportunity (staff will learn from others in the training)
- Address gaps using multiple methods
- “As a manager/trainer, never equate training with learning. You don’t know what you’ve taught until you observe what’s been learned” Marcus Buckingham
- Use mentoring, role modeling & supervision to translate learning to practice

Element #7:
Customer focus and engagement

Partner with individuals, families, disability service
partners & business leaders

By collaborating with key customer groups, you'll meet individual and market needs.

Element #8: Employment performance measurement, quality assurance, and program oversight

Tracking individual outcomes

graph TD; A[Tracking individual outcomes] --> B[Share accountability across all staff]; B --> C[Correct course]; C --> D[Celebrate successes]; D --> E["What gets measured gets done."]

Share accountability across all staff

Correct course

Celebrate successes

"What gets measured gets done."

Provider Strategies

- Start your data collection with your planning
- Measure quality and satisfaction
- Consider formal data collection options
- Don't just collect it, use it and share it!

Element #9: Embrace a holistic approach

- Consider the whole person
- Career planning process involves staff, parents, friends
- Maintain personal relationships, develop new ones

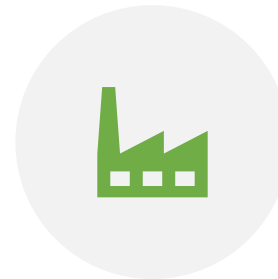

Provider Strategies

CONSIDER WHOLE LIFE
STARTING WITH PLANNING

MAXIMIZE COMMUNITY
LIFE ENGAGEMENT
SUPPORTS

MAKE EMPLOYMENT
EVERYONE'S BUSINESS-
BREAK THE SILOS!!!

Element #10: Develop multiple and diverse community partnerships

Create buy-in to the change process

Include local businesses, school districts, state agency offices, faith-based organizations

Effective partnerships:

- promote actions that improve outcomes
- foster positive change
- meet the needs of both parties

Provider Strategies

Build on

- Build on staff and board member professional relationships (social capital)

Redefine

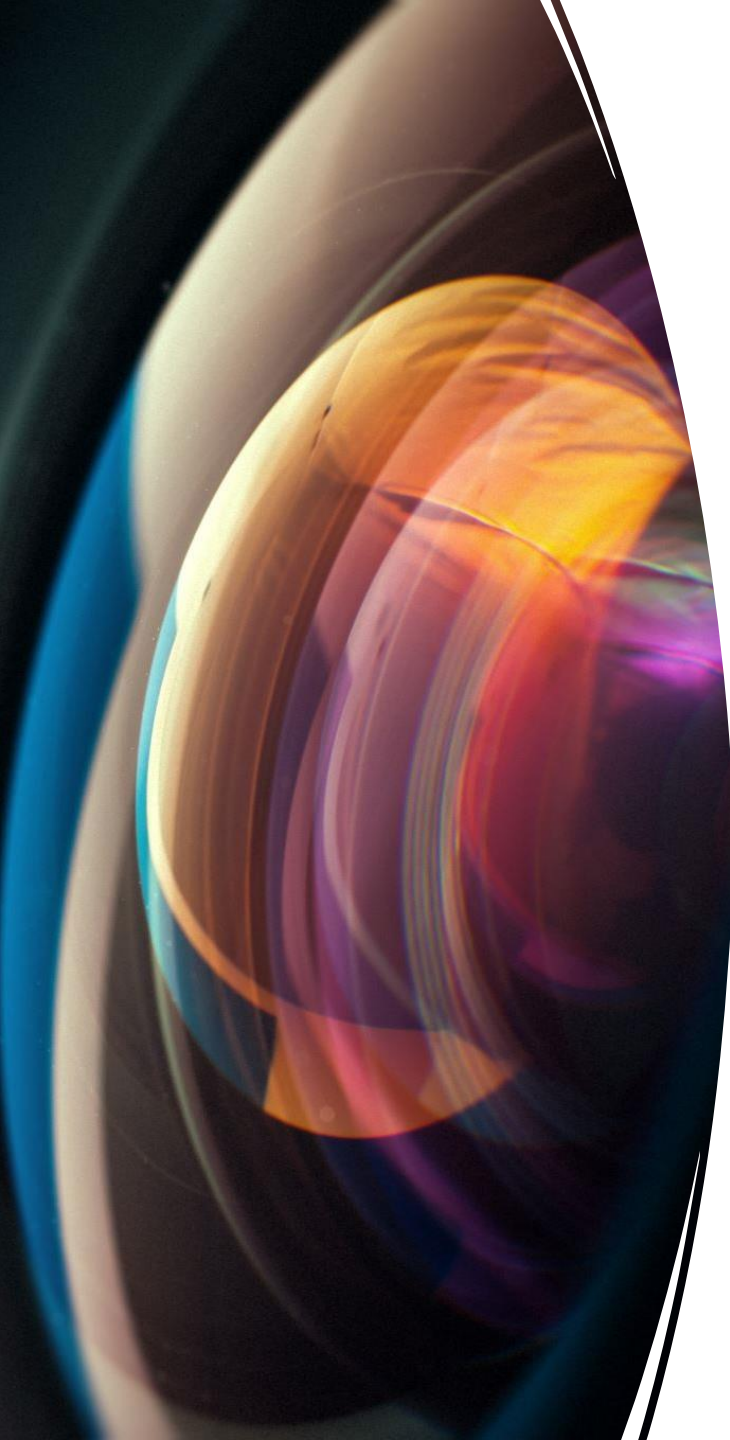

- Redefine/refresh pre-existing partnerships

Snowball

- Synergy + collaboration + shared resources = improved outcomes and results

Leverage

- Leverage whatever resources each partner brings to the relationship

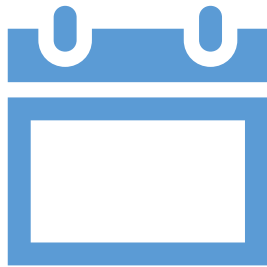

Through the Lens of a Leader

“We’ve never stopped transforming.....we are more successful now than we’ve ever been.”
