State Employment
Leadership Network

Ten Examples of SELN Member Technical Assistance Events

1. Leadership, Policies, and Goals

general tasks and activities related to a set of concepts or topics in systems change work.

2. Training and Technical Assistance, Including Workforce Development

States need a strong, competent workforce to increase the number of individuals who are successful in individual, integrated jobs. State policies and programs cannot be successful when people in the field are unfamiliar with new service delivery models and support strategies.

3. Interagency Partnerships and Collaboration

State IDB agencies must form effective relationships with other state and community partners to help systems and people achieve employment goals. Discussions are focused on the key questions to help make a shift toward individual, integrated employment across state partners.

4. Provider-Level Organizational Change

The SELN project team engages with groups in states who are assisting service providers to realign business practices to support delivery of high-quality community-based employment services.

5. Communication Strategies

The SELN project team guides state agencies to plan and implement communication initiatives promoting community employment.

6. Financing, Contracting, and Funding Realignment

The SELN project team assists member states with identifying funding-related barriers to achieving integrated employment outcomes and developing funding and contracting strategy.

7. Performance Measurement and Quality Management

The SELN project team guides member states in development and implementation of employment outcome data-collection processes, and discusses the benefit and utility of such systems.

8. Services and Service Innovation

States must structure and align services that facilitate and deliver best practices for employment supports to all individuals with developmental disabilities.

9. Online Events

The project team delivers customized online events to member states.

10. Public Forums

SELN provides technical assistance to states to develop public dialogue, often using forums to do so. These events showcase best practices in community employment and offer networking opportunities to people working in the field. SELN coordinates with the state lead to select a planning committee, determine topics, identify locations and scheduling, develop an evaluation and data-collection plan, recruit guest speakers, and establish the agenda.

Sample ideas – not an exhaustive list!

Work with the SELN team to customize supports to your member state.

Funding Realignment in State Intellectual and Developmental Disability Systems

March 2016

- Available on the Hub
- Essential concepts in state funding systems change
- Use in discussions with internal and external players

Funding assumptions

Realignment of funding strategy is one part of systems change, and must:

- assume everyone can work,
- invest in integrated employment,
- support community integration and self-determination, and
- reflect that employment occurs within an individual's life experiences

Developing a funding strategy to meet the assumptions

Requires stakeholder to...

- make decisions from a range of possible payment amounts and systems,
- develop methodologies for each phase of integrated employment,
- build employment pathways,

Developing a funding strategy to meet the assumptions

Requires stakeholder to...

- ensure supports and services are accountable for integrated employment,
- promote the high-quality supports, and
- ensure that changes are developed and evaluated over the long term and within the context of all systems changes.
