

Addressing the Transportation Challenge

State Employment Leadership Network Monthly Meeting

December 20, 2017

"It's so much easier to suggest solutions when you don't know too much about the problem."

- Malcolm Forbes

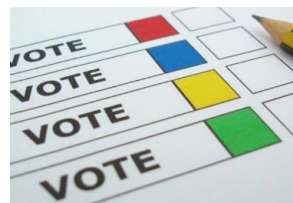

Today's Presenters

- David Hoff
Program Director, Institute for Community
Inclusion, UMass Boston
617-287-4308
david.hoff@umb.edu
- Charlie Dickson
Deputy Director, Community Transportation
Association of America
202-247-8356
800-891-0590 x708 (toll free)
dickson@ctaa.org
www.ctaa.org

TIME FOR A POLL

- Current relationship with state department of transportation
- Role of your agency regarding transportation

TIME FOR A POLL

- How do you transport yourself to work?

Changing the transportation mindset beyond a narrow set of options.

"It's more than just the van."

Addressing the transportation challenge

Transportation must reflect core values of community employment for people with disabilities

- Integration and inclusion in the community
- Use of natural supports
- Person-centered
- Individual choices and preferences

Strategies

YOUR ROLE AS A SERVICE SYSTEM

- Understand level of resources being used for transportation
- Reconfigure use of existing transportation resources
- Connecting and partnering with transportation officials at state level
- Encourage/facilitate regional and local partnerships
- Supporting service provider capacity building on individualized transportation
- Setting of policies

Does your current transportation system support individual employment in the community?

- Transportation addressed as part of career planning
- Tracking of provide resource devoted to transportation
- Maximizing transportation self-determination and independence
- Others

ROLE OF SERVICE PROVIDERS

- Full understanding of transportation options
- Facilitating individualized, self-determined approach to transportation that:
 - maximizes independence
 - makes efficient and effective use of resources
- Linking with local transportation officials and other groups that experiencing transportation challenges

COLLABORATION GOALS

1. Identify existing untapped transportation resources
2. Work in partnership to more efficiently and effectively use existing resources
3. Work in partnership to develop new resources and options

Transportation: Avoiding Passive Dependence & Acceptance

Starting from an early age if possible, individuals and families should:

- recognize the relationship of transportation to independence, integration, inclusion
- have the tools to use a range of transportation options
- learn to actively self-advocate for and self-manage transportation rather than being a passive recipient

HAVE MAXIMUM INDEPENDENCE
IN TRANSPORTATION
AS GOAL FOR INDIVIDUALS

- Travel training
- Safety training
➤ "Let's Get Lost"
- Education on transportation options

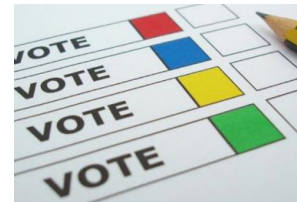

INDIVIDUALS & FAMILIES

- Changing expectations and mindset
- Emphasizing transportation as key to independence
- Travel and safety training
- Peer-to-peer
- One step at a time

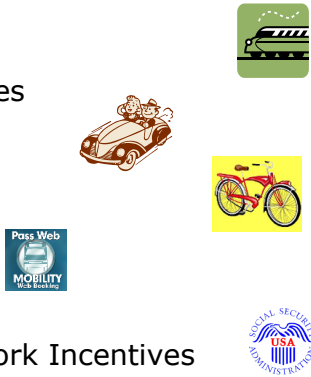

TIME FOR A POLL

- Share possible options for individual employment transportation

A Few Ideas to Get Started

1. Mass transit
2. Car pools
3. Employer resources
4. Volunteer drivers
5. Walking & biking
6. Ride sharing
7. Paratransit
8. Taxi/Uber/Lyft
9. Social Security Work Incentives
10. Others

Technology and Transportation

Cellphones

APPs

Google Maps

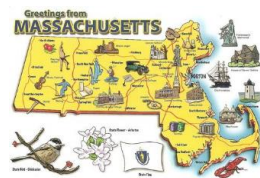

Ride Sharing

Ride Services

Systemic Solution Examples

- Development of Regional Transportation Coordinating Councils
- Annual transportation conference
- MassMobility: development of centralized web-based resource

CRITICAL IMPORTANCE OF ENGAGING INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES IN TRANSPORTATION PLANNING

TRANSIT PLANNING FOR ALL

Institute for Community
Inclusion

Advocacy. Action. Answers on Aging.

“There are always possibilities.”

Mr. Spock

Questions, Comments, Discussion

TIME FOR A POLL

What else would be useful on the topic of transportation?

HANDOUTS

- SELN Publication - Getting to Work: Addressing the Transportation Challenge
- Transportation Resources
- PowerPoint

